HOW & WHY WE LEARN PROFESSIONAL ENGLISH?

Learning English is important and people all over the world decide to study it as a second language. Many countries include English as a second language and start learning it from the young age. However, do you know why learning English is so important?

- English is the most commonly spoken language in the world. One out of five people can speak or at least understand English!

- English is the language of science, of aviation, computers, diplomacy, and tourism. Knowing English increases your chances of getting a good job in a multinational company within your home country or of finding work abroad.

- English is the official language of 53 countries. That is a lot of people to meet and speak to.
- English is spoken as a first language by around 400 million people around the world.
- English is the language of the media industry. If you speak English, you won't need to rely on translations and subtitles anymore to enjoy your favourite books, songs, films and TV shows.
- English is also the language of the Internet. Many websites are written in English – you will be able to understand them and to take part in forums and discussions.

Many people struggle with writing in English and it can seem like a real challenge to improve. When we speak, we don't have to worry about spelling, punctuation and capitalization, or neatness or legibility. But when we write, these things become very important. When we speak, we can correct ourselves immediately if our listener doesn't understand. But when we write, our writing must stand alone and explain itself without us. Here are some simple steps that you can take to improve your written English and impress people with your writing skills.

Expand your vocabulary because to express yourself clearly, you need a good active vocabulary. That's not just being able to recognise lots of words – it means actually being able to use them correctly. Do this by learning new words with example sentences, not just word lists.

Master English spelling. You must know how to spell those words correctly. Incorrect spelling changes the meaning of your sentence. For example: 'bare' and 'bear' sound the same but 'bare' means naked and 'bear' is a large animal. Additionally, incorrect spelling makes it difficult for the reader to understand what you've written.

Read regularly because people often say that we learn to write best by reading. Reading in English is useful in many ways. It is a great way to get an idea of the different styles of writing and see how to use words appropriately.

Improve your grammar. Grammar is very important because it improves the quality of your writing. Always use the appropriate tense and remember to use punctuation. Punctuation is a great way to make your writing clear and fluent.
